CASE NUMBER: CR-17-00066-001 JST

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1) You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of RELEASE, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2) After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3) You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4) You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.
- 5) You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 6) You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with, for example), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 7) You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by these and the special conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 8) You must work at least part-time (defined as 20 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment unless excused from doing so by the probation officer for schooling, training, community service or other acceptable activities. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 9) You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. You must not associate, communicate, or interact with any person you know has been convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
- 10) If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 11) You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12) You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).

- ☐ If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to a third party, the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk. (check if applicable)

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. I understand that the court may (1) revoke supervision, (2) extend the term of supervision, and/or (3) modify the conditions of supervision upon a finding of a violation of probation or supervised release.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISIONPrior Conditions

1. The defendant shall not maintain a position of fiduciary capacity without the prior permission of the probation officer.
2. You shall pay any restitution and special assessment that is imposed by this judgment and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of probation
3. The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any financial information, including tax returns, and shall authorize the probation officer to conduct credit checks and obtain copies of income tax returns.
4. The defendant shall participate in the Location Monitoring Program as directed by the probation officer for a period of 10 months, and be monitored by location monitoring technology at the discretion of the probation officer. Location monitoring shall be utilized to verify his or her compliance with a curfew while on the program. You are restricted to your residence every day from 10 p.m. to 7 a.m. as directed by the probation officer. You shall pay all or part of the costs of the program based upon your ability to pay as determined by the probation officer. (satisfied)
5. The defendant shall submit his or her person, residence, office, vehicle, or any property under his or her control to a search. Such a search shall be conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn any residents that the premises may be subject to searches.
6. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (satisfied)

Additional Conditions

7. You must perform 100 hours of community service as directed by the probation officer.
8. You shall, within 30 days provide written disclosure to the Probation Office and the United States Attorney's Office of all financial interest, without limitation, including beneficial interest in any trusts, lists of any bank, brokerage, or other financial services account in which you have either a beneficial interest or signatory authority, or power of attorney. You shall also include tax returns, including schedules for the last five years, to include personal tax and tax returns filed on behalf of any trust that you control or any business in which you maintain any ownership interest. Following production of these materials, you will give a deposition under oath at a mutual convenient time to the parties.

The Defendant must pay the total criminal monetary penalties as originally imposed, less any payments already received:
